

Sts. Peter & Paul Catholic School Dress Code

(updated by School Council 4/22/2014)

The SPPS dress code has been formulated with solid Christian principles and values in mind. Proper dress and appearance reflect discipline, respect, and good judgment, while providing an environment conducive to learning. It helps minimize or eliminate competitive dress issues. Proper dress and appearance promote character, integrity, and self-esteem, and present students in a way fitting for participation in the sacred liturgy of the Mass.

We know that finding appropriate length shorts can be a problem with today's styles. There are many places that sell uniform shorts. Students also have the option of wearing Capris, so we feel appropriate clothing can be found.
